

Music in the 1980's was not just about songs from Madonna and Duran Duran. In the secluded world of music emerged some of the greatest independent artists and underground tunes that inspired the Gen Xers. Where dressing in all black was not just a statement, but a way of life. Only one band has attempted to capture this "alternative" movement from the 80's.

The 80's Underground is a Southern California band consisting of seasoned musicians with a love for alternative 80's music. Playing songs from The Smiths, The Cure, The Jam, Depeche Mode, INXS, Oingo Boingo, XTC. and many more. The 80's Underground takes their audience away from the mainstream and into an alternative world of Rock. Experience and relive what "alternative" meant in the 80's!
